

RESOURCE MATERIALS AVAILABLE FROM LCA

LCA has an extensive Web site on the Internet. The Association also produces printed materials about the industry and the most important issues. A brief description of each follows. The brochures and other publications are available free of charge in reasonable quantities. A $5.00 shipping and handling fee is required for the poster-sized map of Great Lakes and St. Lawrence Seaway ports.

WEB SITE – WWW.LCASHIPS.COM

LCA's Web site offers a complete overview of U.S.-Flag shipping on the Great Lakes. It is updated regularly with reports on cargo movement, number of vessels in service, and other items of interest.

PRINTED MATERIALS

Annual Report: A 4-page overview of the year that also includes LCA's objectives for the future and a recap of U.S.-Flag cargo carriage. ALSO AVAILABLE ON-LINE.

Position Papers: In-depth reviews, with supporting graphics, of issues affecting U.S.-Flag shipping on the Great Lakes. ALSO AVAILABLE ON-LINE.

Brochure - U.S.-Flag Shipping on the Great Lakes: A general portrait of U.S.-Flag shipping on the Great Lakes. The brochure reviews cargos carried by U.S.-Flag Lakers, the types of vessels flying the American flag on the Great Lakes, and the role the Jones Act plays in fostering this diverse and efficient fleet. ALSO AVAILABLE ON-LINE.

Brochure - Great Lakes Shipping and Michigan: Partners in Commerce: Michigan boasts more deep draft ports than the other seven Great Lakes states combined. The brochure reviews cargo movement to and from Michigan's commercial ports and the thousands of family-sustaining jobs dependent on waterborne commerce.

Brochure - Great Lakes Shipping: The Vital Link For Ohio Industry: As the nation's second-largest steel-producing state, Ohio is a frequent destination for Lakers laden with iron ore and fluxstone. Outbound cargos include coal for power generation, limestone for the construction industry and salt. ALSO AVAILABLE ON-LINE.

Map of Great Lakes and St. Lawrence Seaway Ports: A comprehensive map of all major cargo ports on the Great Lakes. Updated in 2005. An accompanying table lists which cargos move in and out of each port. Available in two sizes: A folded 8.5" x 11" version and a 22" x 28" poster. The poster-sized version is free, but there is a $5.00 shipping and handling fee. ALSO AVAILABLE ON-LINE.

Great Lakes Dredging Crisis: Produced by LCA for Great Lakes Maritime Task Force, the handout explains how decades of inadequate funding for dredging Great Lakes ports and waterways is negating the efficiencies of Great Lakes shipping.
